THE preceding figure is given to represent the INthick cloudy mist issues from all points of the surface, which indicates that this perspiration flows uninterrupoff from the blood and other juices of the body, and disposes by this means, of nearly all the impurities within us The language of Scripture is, " in the BLOOD is the Life." If it ever becomes impure, it may be traced directly to the stoppage of the insensible Perspiration Thus we see, all that is necessary when the blood is stag tality are sufficient, without one particle of medicine, exthe folly of taking so much internal remedies. All practitioners, however, direct their efforts to restore the Insensible Perspiration.
